

St. Sebastian's CE Primary School and Nursery Newsletter 15 3 24

Our Christian Value of this half-term is Forgiveness

Although this is only the second newsletter of this half - term, Easter is coming very quickly. It has been another busy two weeks at school and a lot has been going on to motivate and inspire our children.

Last Thursday, we celebrated World Book Day and there were lots of very exciting activities happening throughout the school. As a school, reading is so important and unlocks so many doors for our learners. Nothing can beat being engrossed in a book that takes you on a fantastic journey or finding out amazing facts about the world around us. As I walked around the school on that day, it was brilliant to see so many children sharing their favourite stories and explaining why they like them so much.

Today, we have our second PTA movie night of the year and I would like to give a big thank you to Barnaby Milbourn and his team for all of the hard work they do to raise money for our and hold such fun events for our children. On Tuesday, Oak Class went to Luckley House School to see 'Joseph and his Amazing Technicolour Dreamcoat'. I know that the children really enjoyed the show and this was funded by the PTA - thank you!

Yesterday, Oak class held their sharing assembly with parents and between now and the end of this academic year all classes will be putting on a celebration of what they have been learning. Please look at the diary dates at the bottom of this newsletter for more information.

Have a lovely weekend and let's hope we have nice weather!

How do you fix a hole
in a lantern?
With a pumpkin patch.

How do you greet the sea?
With a wave!

When do cats keep their lips?
When they purr.

When do you go when you see a cat?
When you see a cat!
